The baseball park, the street railway park and the driving park were in the storm's path. A $15,000 amphitheater was in the course of erection at the driving park. The storm took in these three parks and destroyed buildings, fences and grand stand. At the driving park, about 50 carpenters had just closed work and left. NO FURTHER ACTION TO BE TAKEN

The Petition Was Almost Unexampled in the Weight and Dignity of the Signatures Attached.

Among Them Are Ambassadors, Former Ministers, Justices of the Supreme Court, Senators, Congressmen and Others.

Washington, July 18.—It is stated by Secretary of State Hay that the incident created by the question of the presentation of the Jewish petition to Russia is closed. The state department Friday made public the correspondence that has taken place respecting the petition. Its substance has already been forecasted in the press dispatches. The correspondence consists of an instruction to Mr. Riddle, United States chargé d'affaires at St. Petersburg, reciting in detail the petition, and directing him to present the same to the foreign office if it were willing to receive it. It is stated by Mr. Riddle that the foreign office would not receive it under any circumstances, and Secretary Hay so informed the B'nai B'rith committee in a brief telegram.

The official statement of the facts is as follows: The Russian government has declined to receive or to consider the petition in relation to the condition of the Jews in Russia signed by several thousand citizens, and cabled to St. Petersburg by direction of the president.

It is believed that this petition was almost unexampled in the weight and dignity of the signatures attached to it. Among them are:

In denouncing assassination the Republican convention hit Fugitive Taylor a pretty hard lick.

If the Republicans had denounced assassination a little earlier it might have saved Governor Goebel from that fate.

None of the speakers at the Louisville convention was heard "to point with pride" towards the fugitives at Indianapolis.

Get a lot of Kentucky Republican politicians together and they soon demonstrate that they are about the worst lot of political hypocrite that ever hit the pike.

As soon as Col. Augustus E. Wilson was satisfied the Yerkes-Belknap machine had him beaten he left the Republican convention in Louisville and hied himself off to a summer retreat up North. He wanted to cool off.

FULLY ten hours after it was all over, our neighbor, in speaking of his party's State convention, announced that "the remainder of the ticket will be finished to-day." Our Republican friends who don't take a metropolitan journal had to get the news of their State convention from the BULLETIN.

"I TURN to the future more than I look behind me," exclaimed the Hon. John W. Yerkes in the Republican State convention. It must be confessed it is not a very inviting picture the Republicans see behind them. There are Taylor, and Powers and Youtsey and Howard, all exposed to view, with the victim of their vile plot.

"BELKNAP may be a good man, but he is not a fit man to nominate for Governor, because he is too cold. If Bradley is not the man I predict Democratic success in the State of Kentucky this fall."

That's the opinion of a gentleman who attended the Republican State convention this week. Belknap is a millionaire, and that's what the Republicans want these days.

THE Louisville Post gives this succinct but interesting account of the way in which the Sapp-Yerkes-Belknap Republican "machine" ran things in the recent Republican primaries in that city:

Saturday, by a viva-voce vote in the Republican ward meetings, the temporary organization was declared by the temporary Chairmen to be the permanent organization. All hostile motions were ruled out of order. All attempt to secure a hearing was ignored, and the Sapp slate went through according to orders.

In his impassioned speech before the Republican State convention ex-Governor Bradley fired this shot at Mr. Belknap:

We want to run a man who doesn't run by proxy, but who runs by himself, nor a man who will have to ask somebody to tell him how to be Governor if elected.

The convention went ahead, however, and nominated Belknap. Belknap has the hoolie, and that's what they're after.

The new rule adopted by the BULLETIN, governing the number of changes allowed to advertisers, is working like a charm. The wonder is why the plan was not adopted long ago. Heretofore the privilege of frequent changes was much abused, and in some instances advertising was run at a loss, the extra help required on that account costing more than was paid for space. Now, the two changes a week permitted are often more than wanted. The majority of advertisers find that these meet their requirements, while the few who want to sport metropolitan frills pay the piper to the tune of actual cost for extra composition. Surely a liberal proposition that ought to satisfy everybody concerned.

THE SANTIAGO CAMPAIGN.

The Veterans Attended a Banquet in the Masonic Temple, Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., July 18.—Veterans of the Santiago campaign attended a banquet Friday night in the Masonic temple. John M. Thurston was the speaker of the evening, responding to the toast "The Regular Army," Gen. Joseph Wheeler to "The Cavalry Division," Gen. Hamilton S. Hawkins to "the Infantry" and Maj. Gen. Charles Dick, of the Ohio national guard, to the "American Soldier."

A letter was read from Maj. Gen. J. C. Breckenridge, who was to have responded to "Our Heroic Dead," but who was unable to be present.

New York, July 18.—Charles Jackson, a Negro driver, was arrested at his home Friday night suspected of being the man who killed Charles W. Roxbury, the tea taster, a week ago in River avenue in the Bronx. The man, according to Inspectors McCluskey and Titus, is the person who pawned Roxbury's watch, the pawn ticket for which was found in the possession of Jackson's wife, to whom he had given it. He admits pawning the watch, but says he found it at a circus in Danbury, Ct., last Wednesday.

The Shamrock III. Beat Shamrock I. in a Thirty Mile Course.

Atlantic Highlands, N. THE BUILDING TRADE TIEUP.

Seventy-Five Thousand Men Will Go to Work Monday.

New York, July 18.—The signing of the arbitration plan of the builders, an agreement on the wage scale for another year, by the Bricklayers' union, it is said, insures the return to work on Monday of 75,000 men and the end of the building trades tieup. The fact that 16 of the 22 local unions of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners have accepted the arbitration agreement is taken as further assurance that the strike will end.

Yesterday, H. D. Friesbie and George Galbraith brought suits in the Bracken Circuit Court against Leander Berry, John Hicks, Samuel Insko and Newton Hull for a specific performance of contract and damages. Options for oil leases had been given Messrs. Friesbie and Galbraith by about fifty farmers in Bracken County, and all had complied with their contracts with the exception of these gentlemen, therefore these suits were brought. A suit for $5,000 damages was already pending in that court against Leander Berry, for not complying with his contract on other land leased to these gentlemen.

"Medical Practice Blunders."

[Andrew Sloan Draper.]

The scientific knowledge and the mission of the doctor of medicine should combine to make him the best exemplar in society of physical, intellectual and moral cleanliness. Yet I see doctors every day who need a bath, whose very clothes should be burned, and if they were to go with the clothes, the world would not be moved deeply nor sorrow long. Often the breath is foul and evidences are not lacking of the grossest violence of sane and healthful living.

In view of all the things which modern scientific knowledge enables one to know with certainty, there is too much uncertainty, too much hideous blundering in medical practice. To trifles with human life in defiance of well known scientific truths, to proceed upon mere guess when the facts essential to competent and exact treatment may be easily ascertained, is an offense against decency and should be made an offense against law which would land one in jail.

An Elephant, a Lion and a Mosquito sat in a shadynook overlooking Market Esplanade, discussing Brick Streets and other topics of the day.

"I want to impress upon you," remarked the Elephant during a lull in the conversation, "I am the biggest and wisest, and what I say goes."

"Indeed," roared the Lion in a voice that hushed the murmur of the fount in the square below, "where do I come in? I'm stronger and more active than you are and can best you in a rough and tumble fight."

"Cease your quarreling and listen to me," boasted the mosquito. "I am not as big as you are but when it comes to making life miserable for the Human Race, me and my cousin Shoo Fly have you both beaten a block."

The Lion's lip curled scornfully. "You could do all that once," he replied, "but you've been barred out. Folks are no longer afraid of you. The Window Screen has settled your fate."

PITHY POINTS.

Some individuals seem to forsake their party obligations with as much facility as sliding off a log.

Taylor, of Indiana, is like the story of Dr. Jeckyll and Mr. Hyde—guilty at Frankfort and innocent at Indianapolis.

The people of Kentucky will hardly be able to see their way clear to again embark on the mad course of Republicanism and assassination.

Were Taylor to go on the lecture platform and tell what he really knows about assassinations he would be the "drawingest card" in the country.

Republicanism and assassination are so allied in the minds of Kentucky people that they have the appearance of being one and inseparable—in reality twin evils.

What Taylor knows about the assassination of Governor Goebel would make mighty interesting reading, regardless of the claim set up by some that he knows nothing.

HELENA STATION, July 16th.—Mrs. Bettie Finch and Miss Mary Finch are in Denver, Col.

It is very dry in this community. Corn and tobacco are needing rain badly.

Wheat has about all been threshed; the yield light.

The prospect for a corn crop is exceedingly poor and unless rain comes soon and we have a late fall, there will be but very little in this vicinity. Many fields at best will only make fodder.

The hot dry weather has been hard on the grass, and as a consequence pastures are very poor, and timothy and clover hay will be scarce and high.

MAYSLICK, July 16.—Mrs. Powers and bright little daughter, of Paris, have been pleasant guests of Mrs. M. H. Davis the past week.

Negroes Fleeing to Kentucky For Safety.

[Chicago Post.]

There's a smile that won't come off today, and it extends all the way from Charleston to San Antonio. It is caused by the announcement that the terrified negroes are "fleeing for safety from Indiana to Kentucky." We have had a good deal to say up here in the North, and with voices trembling with horror and indignation, about the outrageous treatment of negroes down South, but with the recollection of the outbreaks in Illinois, Indiana and Delaware, and with the fact before us that the negroes are seeking safety among the very people whom we have regarded as their persecutors, it may be advisable for us to suspend judgement and let the South "work out the problem in its own way."

We commend the colored brother to the hospitality of Kentucky, and we ask for him an asylum and a refuge until our hot Northern blood has cooled sufficiently to allow him to return to Indiana.
